GENESIS 16

3/16/22

In Genesis 16:2 Sarai communicates that the Lord has kept her from having children. What does this tell you about her belief in the person of God?

What do you think about Sarai's plan to generate an off-spring? Do you think Sarai or Abram perceived it as contrary to God's will?

What are your thoughts on Abram heeding to Sarai's voice?

As Sarai blames Abram for this situation, who's really responsible? If both hold some responsibility, how much is Sarai's and how much is Abram's?

In Genesis 16:6, was Abram wrong for deferring to Sarai?

Do you battle with taking responsibility?
